ABOUT THIS READING

This reading provides you with a full analysis of your personality, known in astrology terms as a character portrait. It takes into account the exact position of the sun, moon and planets at the time of your birth. The reason why readings in a typical paper are inaccurate is because they are very generalised, they only consider the position of the sun only. This reading ultimately provides a detailed description of the person you are destined to become, or may already be. The reading is broken down into categories that reflect certain areas of your personality or life, enjoy! Provided is an astrological birth chart, this represents the exact positions of celestial bodies at the time and location of your birth.

GENERAL PERSONALITY

Sun in Scorpio

At the exact time of your birth, the sun was in the constellation Scorpio. This is your star sign; however, this reading does not take into account your star sign only. Many factors are also considered such as the positions of the moon and planets at the time of your birth.

Typical Scorpio zodiac signs appear cool and controlled on the surface, even fearless. But under this mask lays repressed anger ready to explode at any moment. Intensity is what sums up a Scorpio, such as the way they stare or talk. This intensity usually manifests from their strong emotional, passionate, and secretive nature. They are also very good at analyzing others, and can manipulate a situation to their advantage. Scorpios are either a loyal friend or a bitter enemy.

We will now look deeper into your personality to see if you match this typical Scorpio personality. Not everyone will, as every person is unique, just like this reading!

Sun in 2nd house

Throughout your life, there are likely to be many issues regarding your finances. And, it may take some time before you become financially responsible. You probably feel a strong need to achieve domestic and financial security, and there is a likelihood that you fear being in debt. The choices you make in life have a major impact on your financial situation.

Moon in 1st house

You are a flexible and adaptive person with hypersensitive feelings that constantly fluctuate. Because your face is so highly expressive, people easily pick up on how you feel. Be careful not to be too easily influenced by others throughout your life. You have a strong connection to your mother.

Pluto in 1st house

You have a magnetic personality, but getting to know you can be difficult. People are either intrigued or intimidated by you, probably because of your deep, intense eyes and mysterious ways. Also you appear quite reserved and secretive, as you fear your motives could be used against you. Because of this, it is extremely hard for you to trust people. This causes you many problems at home, work and in relationships.

Throughout your life you may experience some major transformations to your personality. You may suddenly change your career path, friendships or the way you dress. Then do the same again many years later, reinventing yourself is something you are incredibly good at.

Sun blending with Venus

Social relationships are extremely important to you. You are charming and have an easy-going manner. It is generally quite important for you to be popular, to come across in a pleasant way, and to be liked and appreciated. You do your best to seek peace and harmony in relationships with people. You are also good at smoothing other people's situations out. You have an appreciation for art and music.

Sun harmonizing with Saturn

You are self-confident and have much common sense. When you take on responsibilities with ease, you will achieve success much easier than most. You are organized, and work consistently and well for success.

You have great belief in your talents and are quite sure of yourself. The relationship with your father during your childhood was a very good one. He made you feel confident in your abilities to go out there and achieve what you want; you probably even admire him.

Neptune harmonizing with Pluto

You belong to a generation which has brought a fundamental change to human values.

Neptune harmonizing with Ascendant

You are deeply sensitive, which makes it difficult for you to be satisfied in personal relationships. Your expectations are rarely fulfilled because you seek the ideal partner. Your eyes have a magnetic quality about them.

Pluto blending with Ascendant

There is an intense side to your nature which makes people take notice. Also, you probably look physically strong. You probably try and enjoy bossing people around; manipulating people is easy for you, which can make you a leader.

Although you are good at revealing secrets in others, you also have a secretive side too.

Although you are bossy, some people like it, which may surprise you. You can draw people to you like a magnet; however, some will avoid you.

Your Ascendant is Libra rising

People see you as a nice, pleasant, and fair individual who is a very attractive person. Your easy-going and friendly nature makes a good impression on people; also, people love your charming smile. You pay a lot of attention to your appearance, such as the colors you wear, your hair, even the way you walk.

LOVE, FRIENDSHIPS AND FUN

Venus in Scorpio

When it comes to romance, you are very intense, and approach people you like in a straightforward, determined, and direct manner. In order for you to be happy in a relationship, it will need to be deep and meaningful, and filled with emotion. For you there must be total commitment, otherwise you would rather have nothing.

Because your feelings in relationships are so intense, you may come across as slightly possessive of your partner. You are likely a very sexy person. You may find it difficult to tell someone that you like him or her, because you are afraid of being rejected.

Venus harmonizing with Saturn

You can find it awkward to give and receive love. This can sometimes cause problems in relationships as you are resistant to express your loving feeling to them. You are optimistic, understanding, and have good judgement about people, knowing who to turn to when you're in need of help. You have a need to feel popular with people and fear being rejected.

YOUR MIND AND COMMUNICATION

Mercury in Libra

You have a mind that is very stable and rational. When it comes to dealing with people and expressing your opinions, you are very fair. Arguments are something you dislike and would prefer to discuss issues in a civilized manner. You are easy to talk to and reply honestly. You know how to handle people and treat them with care. If you are to tell someone about their faults, you will express it in a gentle way, also considering their sensitivity.

Mercury in 1st house

You are extremely talkative and have little problem communicating your thoughts effectively. When speaking, you are very expressive, communicating in a witty and quick manner. You have no trouble attracting friends. Being mentally restless, you always seek new and useful information. Due to your versatility, you can adapt to different situations with ease. The problem is you are easily distracted.

Uranus in 1st house

As you are not the type to follow tradition or a particular crowd, you do things your own way. This may have caused issues during your school years as you probably felt like rebelling. However, most of the time you were able to tolerate it.

Neptune in 3rd house

During your childhood, learning was an issue for you. This is not because you are not clever; it's just that your mind works different than most people. A majority of pupils at school learn most effectively from logic, facts, and reasoning. However, your mind absorbs information best through learning techniques that involve the use of pictures and demonstrations. This is because your mind is incredibly imaginative and very attracted to things such as symbols, feelings, and images. This is why you make decisions based on feelings, rather than logic.

A majority of your ideas are unusual, mysterious, and clever, and usually originate from a particular belief or philosophy.

You have an interest in the occult or paranormal, depending upon how spiritually developed you are; there may be the ability to communicate at a distance by supernatural means.

Because concentrating can be difficult for you, subjects such as science may not appeal.

Jupiter discordant to Neptune

You are very sensitive to the suffering around you, and may have a desire to save the world somehow. You have a great imagination that could be used for art and music; however, to use this ability you must become self-disciplined. It may be quite easy for people to deceive you. You tend to be rather lazy and self indulgent (especially with eating and drinking, and possibly drugs too).

You crave experiences in exotic and mystic countries.

CAREER AND MONEY

Sun in 2nd house

Throughout your life, there are likely to be many issues regarding your finances. And, it may take some time before you become financially responsible. You probably feel a strong need to achieve domestic and financial security, and there is a likelihood that you fear being in debt. The choices you make in life have a major impact on your financial situation.

Venus in 2nd house

You are attracted to high quality and beautiful possessions, such as luxurious furniture, gadgets, and clothing. This results in frequent spending, because when you see something you want, you buy it.

You are suited to partners who are simple, honest, and make you feel safe and secure. Jumping into relationships is not something you often do; you prefer to take your time in this area. You may be rather artistic, and could make money from it.

Mars in 2nd house

Although you are hard working, your approach is slower than most. This is because much of your energy is focused on the method, as you carefully pay attention to each step. There is a strong desire to earn money, but an equally strong need to spend it.

Competing in the world of business or finance may be enjoyable to you, and you are not afraid of taking risks.

Jupiter in 6th house

At work you are reliable, and actively assist your colleagues when needed. Working with people comes naturally to you, and you always treat people with respect and a friendly attitude. Also you are inclined to help those less fortunate than you. Criticism at work is hard for you to handle.

You have a love of animals; veterinary medicine or other dealings with animals might appeal to you.

Saturn in 10th house

During your childhood, your mother was the more dominant parent. She was also very strict, probably because she had to be. Your father was absent from your life, or maybe he was emotionally distant. The lack of love or attention from your father made you want to make your mark on the world, or achieve something great. This desire drives you to achieve within your chosen career. If you end up in a position of authority, you will lead based on your practical experiences in life. It is likely you will reach a high position in your chosen career; however, the climb to the top will be slow and filled with many challenges along the way. Rewards for all your hard work is likely to be seen after the age of 30.

You have the discipline to take on any responsibilities with ease, and can study for long periods.

EMOTIONS

Moon in Libra

You thrive on relationships and do not like being alone. Once in a relationship, you can easily see flaws, and it will nag you until you fix them. Also, you don't like to lose an argument; having the last word is important to you. It is vital for you to have intellectual stimulation in a relationship.

You have excellent planning and strategic ability plus good attention to detail. Friends come easily to you due to your gentle approach and good manners. Your feelings are out there for people to see, especially when you have your mood swings. It is hard to keep your feelings secret, which makes you a very transparent person.

Making a decision is hard for you, as all factors need to be weighed. It is likely you will or already have married or moved in with a partner earlier than most people.

You have a strong bond with your mother. She is a social and pleasant person.

Jupiter in Pisces

You are likely to have careers where you are working behind the scenes. Being in the spotlight is not really for you; such positions include public speaking, manager, sales person, or anything else that requires you to be the center of attention. Being quite easy-going, you do not possess much ambition. You are inclined to support the underdog and may be too compassionate for your own good.

Moon discordant to Saturn

The nature of your personality is rather serious and thoughtful. You are careful in whatever you undertake, moving cautiously and efficiently through whatever steps are necessary to accomplish your goals. You are sometimes very blunt and that can be harmful to others, but you do not see it.

During your childhood, your mother may have been very controlling of you, setting strict household rules. Your childhood most likely had many unsettling and disturbing experiences which forced you to grow up rather early. You needed to quickly mature in order to deal with your situation at home. Responsibilities were put upon you too early in your childhood.

You sometimes take life (and yourself!) too seriously. Throughout your life, you may find that you relate more easily to persons who are older than you, especially in your youth.

Throughout your childhood you probably felt a lack of love from your parents, or you were left with just one parent through separation, divorce, or death. You may not have had the unconditional love you needed from your mother, even though you may have felt like you needed to earn it! Your emotions, therefore, become disciplined and hard to express. You may sometimes come across as somewhat defensive, and for you, this is a form of self-protection. To hide the world from your feelings, you put on a cool exterior, but people may not realize you can sometimes be shy and lacking in self-confidence; however, this builds up gradually throughout your life.

You probably have an irrational fear due to forgotten events in the past.

Moon harmonizing with Neptune

In your personal life and intimate relationships, you may need to be wary of a tendency to be excessively romantic, and preoccupied with dreams of the ideal lover who is always searched for and never found.

You are a soft, imaginative, and sensitive person, so sensitive that you can sometimes pick up feelings from your environment that others fail to detect. You may feel overwhelmed at times by your feelings, and may need to shut yourself off from the world.

You're the type who is willing to help anyone. Yet somehow you end up getting blamed for their failures, and rarely get much credit for their successes. Because your mind wants to wander, you need stimulating challenges, and you must avoid boring and repetitive tasks. You're very much the romantic, and it's hard for anyone to measure up to your expectations. You really are incredibly caring, identifying with those less fortunate than you, offering help wherever possible.

If you are unable to balance your emotions, you could slip into a fantasy world and have difficulty coping with reality.

You may have psychic ability, as you can easily sense the emotions around other people. You may even have strange dreams which are almost predictive in nature, and can help provide you with good insight into situations.

You are likely to be very interested in psychology and psychic phenomena. Your keen imagination can lead to exceptional artistic ability, and your love of music allows you to become an excellent musician.

Moon blending with Pluto

Your emotions are so intense that other people may have trouble handling you for long periods of time; yet others will be drawn to this. You strive to find a perfect partner, and seek much intensity in this area. You would prefer to remain alone, rather than become involved with others who do not match the perfect type you have in mind.

Romantic relationships can be an issue for you. Although you are very committed to relationships, you can become almost consumed by emotions, even obsessed. However, as you become older, you may learn to balance these emotions to make relationships less intense. All these feelings may come from your fear of rejection; this hurts you very much. It can be hard for you to trust others as you naturally understand the inner workings of those with whom you come into contact. You probably have true psychic ability, plus there may be an interest in life after death, reincarnation, and other metaphysical subjects.

If you are female, your emotional intensity is difficult to miss. Men may be especially intimidated by your sensuality, and if you have control issues, you may even project an aura of power which can overwhelm any man who gets close to you (at least occasionally). You may also be somewhat intimidating to other women, especially if you harbor a mistrust of women. The connection you feel with your mother may be particularly strong, and it is quite possible that you felt submerged by her emotional needs in a very powerful way when you were younger.

AGGRESSION AND SEX

Mars in Scorpio

You are the type of person that gives 100% or nothing at all; this applies to every thing you do. When you do give it your all, you have incredible will power and persistence. This is the extreme part of your nature which also applies to your anger. You keep your cool and your stability on the surface. Below the surface may be another story, filled with repressed anger ready to explode at any moment. When you're in this state of mind, you are likely to become rather sarcastic and snappy with people.

You are also extreme when it comes to confrontation; sometimes you say nothing at all, and other times you go over the top. You rarely lose control, but when you do, you stop at nothing to get more than even with someone. The frightening display of the anger you show shocks people.

It is possible you have the ability to see through others, easily reading their true motives.

When it comes to sex, you are intensely passionate and sensual. You are likely to be especially attractive to the opposite sex, whether or not you are physically attractive. You may be fascinated with sexuality in all its expressions; certainly your interest is always keen. Your interest in sex may lead you to experiment sexually, trying many different things. Even things that are considered socially or culturally unacceptable (taboos) may be of interest to you.

You're a very loyal friend, but also a bitter enemy; betrayal is something you never forget. You're jealous and possessive of your sexual partners.

Mars harmonizing with Jupiter

Although you have incredibly strong beliefs, you can act on them wisely to ensure that no one gets hurt in the process. Campaigning for something you truly believe in would come natural, as you are fearless and have much faith in your ability to succeed.

HOMELIFE

Saturn in Cancer

Your childhood was most likely an unloving one, and full of problems, which still emotionally scar you to this day. This has resulted in a lack of closeness and warmth between you and family members. Having your own home is very important to you, and you're likely to work very hard for this.
